Blessing on Passing a Graveyard

*May perpetual light shine upon the faces of all who rest here.
May the lives they lived unfold further in spirit.
May all their paths travail find ease in the kindness of clay.
May the remembering earth mind every memory they brought
May the rains from the heavens fall gently upon them.
May the wildflowers and grasses whisper their wishes into light.
May we reverence the village of presence in the stillness of this silent field.*

26th Nov @ 4pm in St. John`s Rest & Care, Knock -

“Misneach, an ancient Irish word means both ‘hope and courage’ and so we want to create a space for people who have been bereaved by suicide to reflect and celebrate the lives of people they`ve lost, and it`s also for people who can celebrate that they have worked through the issues that had brought them to a point of suicide but who can now move forward in a more hope-filled future”.
