Kevin Glynn from L.A. will be travelling to Kilvine shortly in search of Glynn, Conway & Kirrane ancestors and relatives. He would love to meet up with some possible cousins and any insights or contacts to help him write a family history would be greatly appreciated. Kevin's father, Thomas Glynn, though born in England in 1911, came to Ireland when his father, John Glynn (born in Kilvine) retired from the English Constabulary, to retire near Brickens. Tom Glynn emigrated to the US in 1929 but returned to Brickens to retire around 1972. He passed away in 1990 and is buried in Tulrahan. Kevin's email add: kglaca@gmail.com. There is more information and images on the Kilvine Parish Facebook page.

“Come away by yourselves to a quiet place and rest a while” [Mk 6:31].

In the Gospel today the disciples meet with Jesus and tell him about all the hard work they have done. Realising they are tired, Jesus suggests they go together somewhere for a quiet rest. The crowds follow Jesus and the disciples, however, because they are so keen to learn more.
