EMMAUS

Heavy hearts and shaking heads proclaim their sadness in Jesus' death.
It was their hope that he would become Israel's ruler of the new kingdom.
Along the lonely road they travelled a stranger walked and tried to unravel,
The terrible trauma of recent days and all the doubts that wouldn't go away.
When they reached their journey's end they would not let him part,
But brought him in to eat a meal and soon they were ready to start.
When he came to break their bread eyes were opened: "it's Jesus", they said.
But now he left them they could not believe that they had been so slow to see
They wasted no time to journey that night to tell the others of their sight.
Jesus was closer than they could realise. Their hearts aflame, He by their side.
So let me shout, and let me sing, doesn't my own heart burn
When I let Jesus in? (Written by Fr Liam Lacey, Dublin)

The aim of Trócaire will be two-fold. Abroad, it will give whatever help lies within its resources to the areas of greatest need among the developing countries. At home, it will try to make us all more aware of the needs of these countries and of our duties towards them. These duties are no longer a matter of charity but of simple justice.

"We support the most vulnerable people in the developing world. This support is offered to people of all faiths. We work without prejudice to express the support of the Catholic Church in Ireland for the most vulnerable people. Our work is grounded in Catholic Social Teaching and is in line with the teachings of the Catholic Church. For example, we do not fund or promote abortion. Trócaire's work is funded by parishes across Ireland. We also receive grants from large institutions. We do not accept money from any organisation whose primary mission runs contrary to Catholic Social Teaching. While we engage with many networks and partners, we do not always agree with positions taken by those networks and partners." Trócaire

On behalf of Trócaire, a great big thank you is extended to all who have handed in their envelope / box to the Parochial House or church so far. If you still have a donation to hand in please do so as soon as possible, in order for us to send it off to help those who need it most.

Thank You.
