A PRAYER IN A COUNTRY CEMETERY

Dear Lord, here lie in their last rest, the people who worked the land and knew the meaning of hard work.

They knew the joy and peace that is the product of labour and now we trust they know the peace and happiness of everlasting life with You.

They watched the sun rise often, winter and summer, over these fields.
They worked hard by its light, and turned willingly to their rest at its setting.

Now they walk in the light of a Sun that knows no setting.

Lord, if they are still in the waiting room of heaven,
bring them speedily to the light of Your peace and the happiness of Your presence.
