In today's Gospel, Jesus says we must love God and love our neighbour. A man asks Jesus to explain just who his neighbour is. So to help him understand, Jesus tells him a story about a traveller who was robbed.

Two people ignore him, but a third person, a stranger, looks after him. The stranger is the neighbour to the traveller. Jesus tells us to do the same.

Do to others as you would have them do to you.

The Greatest Commandments:

Love the Lord your God with all your heart,
all your soul and with all your mind,
and love thy neighbour as thyself.

Matthew 22:37:38
