We are maintaining our services under the HSE Guidelines. Currently all our programme activity has been postponed. Anyone needing Food Boxes, Covid-19 Social Welfare Forms, Citizen's Advice please do not hesitate to contact the numbers above. We update our facebook page daily and are here to help in any way we can.

VICTIM ASSISTANCE We are all overwhelmed by the Corona virus outbreak and we hope that you and yours are all safe and healthy. Now more than ever we need to stay calm, be resourceful, and do what we do best: focus on supporting each other. As a national charity that offers "emotional" and "practical" support to all victims of crime and those and their families that have experienced a "traumatic" incident, we want to reassure all concerned that we at Victim Assistance are committed to continuing our services to those that need us. Whilst some of our staff are working remotely, we can be contacted through our NATIONAL HELPLINE at 1800 277 477, our office telephone 094 9000251 or by email at support@victimassistance.ie. Our offices are manned Monday-Friday 9.30am-5.30pm during these difficult times. Remember – social distancing doesn't mean social isolation – we are here to help and support!

Irish Red Cross Claremorris are here to help. If anyone is in need of a grocery delivery, medication collection and delivery, fuel or essential household items. This is for everyone that needs help, young families or older member of the community. We are here and available contact our Community support Officer, Eileen Connolly on 0872203094 / eileenconnolly15@gmail.com. Thank you and stay safe.

EASTER SUNDAY

Easter Blessings

Easter brings God's endless blessings, love and the freshness of spring. The risen Christ is celebrated in every opened flower, in every beam of nourishing sunlight, in every humble patch of green beneath our feet. Easter is also a time to repent for all our sins and to thank God for all his blessings over us.

Enda O`Donnell, Catherine Fallon, Willie Burke, Bridget Dowd, Mary Canny, Kathleen Kerrigan, Mary Mannion, Bob Thacker.

Sick Calls: The priest will respond as normal to any emergency call.

Prayers during the Covid-19 Pandemic

Prayer is very important at this critical time in our community life, so please offer your own prayer and that of your family for our wellbeing. To help you might use the Prayer card `Prayers for My Family` recently distributed in the parish, along with a Prayer Sheet specially prepared. If you are following Mass on Radio / T.V and therefore cannot receive Communion you may make an act of Spiritual Communion at Communion time. There is an appropriate prayer `Act of Spiritual Communion` in the Prayer Sheet.

Copies of the Prayer Card & Prayer Sheet are available in our Churches.

Kilvine Parish Weekly & Monthly Envelopes/Contributions

Sincere thanks to those who dropped in their contribution to the Parochial House and Presbytery. It is much appreciated.

There have been some enquiries with regard to the collection of Envelopes and Contributions for our Parish. You may drop them through the letter box in the Parochial House, Ballindine or Presbytery, Irishtown. Should you wish to pay on-line the A/C is Kilvine Parish, Sort Code 903760, A/C 75748363 (iban IE51BOFI90376075748363). Many thanks and God Bless.

Priest`s Easter Collection

This collection which is in support of your priest can be left into the letterbox of the Parochial House, Ballindine or Presbytery, Irishtown. Thank You.

Trócaire has advised parishioners to please hold onto their Trócaire Boxes until the current Covid-19 Pandemic is over.

Deaths: Please pray for Nora Reilly, nee O`Toole, who died in USA, formerly of Castlegeach, Irishtown; Padraic (Pat) McHugh, San Francisco, formerly of Cullane, Ballindine; Patrick O`Brien, Ballymacward, Co, Galway, father of Christopher, Lisduff, Irishtown. May they Rest in Peace, Amen.

A Pastoral letter to the People of the Archdiocese for Easter 2020. is available on the Kilvine Parish Website: kilvineparish.ie

The closing lines of Archbishop Michael Neary`s letter read:

“Our faith in Christ`s rising from the dead enables us to embrace the present situation and at the same time opens us to new possibilities. Already we witness signs of hope in the goodness, generosity, altruism, sensitivity towards and support for others. May the risen Christ bless us with the peace that will enable us to recognise that the Lord is journeying with us as we cope with this new challenge. I want to reassure you of my prayers and I ask for remembrance in yours. At this time my daily Masses are being celebrated for: • The front-liners in the fight against Covid-19; • For the success of medical researchers in the hopes that they will discover a lasting cure for Covid-19 and a vaccine to prevent it; • For all infected by this virus; • For the safety of all families and homes who have members in isolation; • For all those dying alone that they will feel the presence of the Lord in their suffering; • I will be remembering all families as they cope with the anxiety and fears that this virus has visited on them.“

Yours sincerely, +Michael Neary Archbishop of Tuam
