Autumn`s Glory

When Summer fields turn tan and lean,
Then Autumn comes upon the scene,
Splashing hills with red and gold –
A dazzling picture to behold!
Flower beds are lavish, too,
Dressed in vivid, festive hue,
And overhead an azure sky
Is brighter than in mid-July.
Tall maple trees along the lane
Wear rainbow halos once again,
As field and meadow overflow
With harvest gold, God`s hand bestows.
A purple haze on distant hill,
Tawny waves on a grassy field,
Sunset`s flame of red and gold –
Breathtaking beauty to behold!
I bow my head in praise and prayer
`Mid Autumn`s glory everywhere;
No other journey is so grand
As when Autumn takes us by the hand.
