"16 days of activism against violence against women and girls" - the Women's Collective Claremorris are showing the award-winning short Film "Bruise" in Cúram on November 30th at 7.30p.m. This very powerful and enlightening film is about a woman trapped in an abusive relationship and how she manages to escape. Also, on the night there will be a representative from Mayo Rape Crisis centre, Mayo Women's Support Services and a Garda Liaison Officer giving information on their service and how women can access it. We are inviting all women in the community to come along to support this event, you may not ever need these services but may know someone who does, now or in the future. By attending this event you are showing your support and solidarity for women in your community who may be experiencing domestic/sexual violence. As women we must all stand together to eliminate violence against women and girls.
